

LEGAL AID COMMISSION OF TASMANIA

invites members and the broader profession
to

Independent Children's Lawyers/Separate Representatives Conference

Friday, 17 May 2019
Peppers Seaport Hotel
28 Seaport Boulevard
Launceston, TAS
9:00am

Topics Include:

- The Voice of the Children – How to Engage Rather than Enmesh Children in the Process and Are We Doing More Harm Than Good?
- Family Violence and Post-Separation Orders
- Vulnerable Families in the Child Protection System – How a Separate Representative Can Assist Children of Vulnerable Families Within the Framework of Protective Orders
- ICLs – Mammals or Dinosaurs? The place and role of ICLs in the Family Law system
- Protecting Children from Harm – When the dangers become potentially lethal

RSVP by 6 May 2019

To hobart.family1@legalaid.tas.gov.au or (03) 6236 3812

For all other enquiries please contact Pat Fitzgerald on patrick.fitzgerald@legalaid.tas.gov.au

Those legal practitioners undertaking ICL and Sep Rep work are invited to attend. Other practitioners interested in undertaking such work are encouraged to attend, however, there will be a small fee.